

INTERMISSION

IN GREEN AND BROWN

Brooks Jensen

A Brooks Jensen Arts Publication

No one likes abstracts.

So, during this brief intermission
while I entertain myself, please feel free to visit the restroom and get some more popcorn. We remind you, there is no smoking in the lobby.

We hope you enjoyed this intermission
in green and brown
— or at least the popcorn.

Our regular feature will continue soon.
Please return to your seats.

Brooks Jensen is a fine-art photographer, publisher, workshop teacher, and writer. In his personal work he specializes in small prints, hand-made artist's books, and digital media publications.

He and his wife (Maureen Gallagher) are the owners, co-founders, editors, and publishers of the award winning LensWork, one of today's most respected and important periodicals in fine art photography. With subscribers in 73 countries, Brooks' impact on fine art photography is truly world-wide. His long-running podcasts on art and photography are heard over the Internet by thousands every day. All 900+ podcasts are available at LensWork Online, the LensWork membership website. LensWork Publishing is also at the leading edge in multimedia and digital media publishing with LensWork Extended — a PDF based, media-rich expanded version of the magazine.

Brooks is the author of seven best-selling books about photography and creativity: Letting Go of the Camera (2004); The Creative Life in Photography (2013); Single Exposures (4 books in a series, random observations on art, photography and creativity); and Looking at Images (2014); as well as a photography monograph, Made of Steel (2012). His next book will be Those Who Inspire Me (And Why). A free monthly compilation of of this image journal, Kokoro, is available for download.
